

Reception's Blog

WC 4th November 2024

Reception have been super busy learning about Bonfire night. We shared our experiences and discussed our likes and dislikes of the loud noises/colourful displays. We celebrated by making chocolate sparklers (yum yum!) and painting firework pictures.

In maths, we have been looking at sharing equally with a little help from The Three Little Pigs. We can now say who has got more, fewer or an equal amount of something.

We have been reading The Little Red Hen and have confidently been writing speech bubbles for the characters. We even shared some yummy warm bread with 'Ooodles of creamy butter' ... just like the Little Red Hen did for our snack!

"I have got more than you... you have got 3 and I have got 4." Sanvi
"I like the glittery fireworks but I don't like the loud ones." Bayzid
"The pig, rat and cat are not kind... they said 'Not I' to The Little Red Hen." Orry
